Potter Nancy Salamon of Clay Born Pottery will debut Clay Born Textiles at the upcoming NY Now summer market. The market will take place from Aug. 20 to Aug. 24 at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York.

The first pieces from the new line will be from the Natural World Collection. Salamon said it will feature her colorful and painterly renditions of hummingbirds, herons, dragonflies, and crabs, placed to showcase the design on kitchen textiles.

The collection includes 100% cotton tea towels and reversible table runners, as well as cotton/poly napkins and chef's aprons.

Nancy Salamon has been producing her handmade and hand-painted ceramic goods featuring her original imagery for nearly 30 years.
